Course Description:

This is an introductory course in the Law and Society Program. It provides the student with both a theoretical and practical framework with which to examine foundational texts in the field of socio-legal studies. After examining essential concepts we will progress toward the end of the course to examine specific issues within Canadian law.

We will examine a variety of texts from a number of historical periods. These texts will help us analyze cultural and social influences in the formation of law and politics and society in general and, Canadian legal culture, specifically.

Objectives of the Course:

By the end of the course the student should be equipped with critical and analytical skills with which she or he can approach a wide variety of materials. This will allow the student to begin to grasp the manner in which law, politics and culture interpenetrate one another and, the manner in which Canadian law is formed and re-formed across time.

Textbooks and Readings:

Edmund Burke. Reflections on the Revolution in France. (Ed. J.G.A. Pocock) Hackett Publishing.

Canada: Constitution Act 1867-1982.

John Locke. Second Treatise of Government (ed. C.B. Macpherson), Hackett Publishing.

Plato. The Trial and Death of Socrates. (tr. G.M.A. Grube), Hackett Publishing.

William Shakespeare. The Merchant of Venice. Oxford University Press.

Readings to be retrieved online from e-journals and other websites.

Non-Required but Highly Recommended Tools

- With regard to formatting and style, please use: The Chicago Manual of Style; it is available as a book, at the book store and also online. Please note that a consistent and

- accurate formatting style is fundamental to the writing components of this course.
- Funk and Wagnalls Canadian College Dictionary. Toronto: Fitzhenry and Whiteside; Oxford English Dictionary (latest editions).
 - Chapman, Robert L., ed. The Original Roget's International Thesaurus, fifth edition. New York: Harper Collins, 1992.
 - Globe and Mail;
 - The New York Times;
 - The Economist;
 - Alberta Views;
 - The Walrus;
 - Macleans

Assignments and Evaluation:

In-class essay/test (25 %) - (Plato & Shakespeare): 6 October 2015

In-class essay/test (35%) – (Locke & Burke & Cdn Constitution): 3 November 2015

Take Home Final Essay/Exam (40 %) - (entire term of readings): 1- 8 December 2015

Students are expected to use ONLY the required texts and readings in their assignments. It is not necessary or expected for students to draw on any materials other than ones mentioned in class. Any use of the other un-cited documents or materials will be treated as plagiarism.

ALL ASSIGNMENTS MUST USE PROPER CITATIONS AND HAVE BIBLIOGRAPHIES.

All assignments must be completed and receive a passing grade in order to receive a passing mark.

It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment.

Note: Please hand in your essays directly to your instructor. If it is not possible to do so, a daytime drop box is available in SS102. A night drop box is also available for after-hours submission. Assignments will be removed from the drop box the following morning and stamped with the CURRENT day's date, then placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Registrar-scheduled Final Examination: No

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information:

Students may use laptops and tablets in class to take notes in class and, to search the internet when asked to do so by the instructor.

In general, Phones, Smartphones and Music devices MUST be turned off or placed “on vibrate.” If you must answer a call, please leave the room prior to doing so as a courtesy to the rest of the class.

When used in a manner that is directly related to student learning, electronic devices are generally acceptable subject to the following conditions:

1. its use does not distract the student and/or those students seated nearby
2. any student who uses an electronic device may be asked to leave the class immediately if his or her conduct with the device becomes unacceptable.
3. ALL electronic devices will NOT be permitted during in class tests.

Policy for Late Assignments:

If a student requires an extension, it is important that s/he contact the instructor as soon as possible and NOT the night before the assignment is due. As the main Sociology Department office does not deal with any course-related matters, you must arrange with me how and when to hand in late material.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act:

This course is conducted in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIP). As one consequence, students should identify themselves on all written work by using their ID number. Also you will be required to provide a piece of picture identification in order to pick up an assignment or look at a final exam.

For more information see also <http://www.ucalgary.ca/secretariat/privacy>.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIPP) legislation does not allow students to retrieve any course material from public places. Anything that requires handing back will be returned directly during class or office hours. "If students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment."

Writing Skills Statement:

All written assignments (including, although to a lesser extent, written exam responses) will be assessed at least partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Research papers must be properly documented. If you need help with your writing, you may use the Writing Centre. Visit the website for more details: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support>

Grading System:

The following grading system is used in the Faculty of Arts:

	Grading Scale
A+	96-100
A	90-95.99
A -	85-89.99
B+	80-84.99
B	75-79.99
B-	70-74.99
C+	65-69.99
C	60-64.99
C-	55-59.99

D+	53-54.99
D	50-52.99
F	0-49

Where a grade on a particular assignment is expressed as a letter grade, it will normally be converted to a number using the midpoint of the scale. That is, A- would be converted to 87.5 for calculation purposes. F will be converted to zero.

Handing in Papers, Assignments

1. The main Sociology Department office does not deal with any course-related matters. Please speak directly to your instructor.
2. Protection of Privacy: The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIPP) legislation does not allow students to retrieve any course material from public places. Anything that requires handing back will be returned directly during class or office hours. If students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.
3. Final grades are not posted by the Sociology Department. They are only available online.

Ethics Research

Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Faculty Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Academic Misconduct

Please refer to the website listed below for information on University of Calgary policies on Plagiarism/Cheating/Other Academic Misconduct:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2-1.html>

Deferrals

When possible, please provide advance notice if you are unable to write an exam or complete/turn-in assignments on time. All requests for deferral of a course component due to health reasons must be accompanied by written documentation as outlined in the University Calendar and should be obtained while the student has the health issue rather than after recovery. Deferrals will be allowed in the following circumstances: illness, domestic affliction or religious conviction. Travel arrangements, misreading the syllabus, and scheduling conflicts with other classes or employment are not valid reasons for requesting a deferral. Deferrals will not be granted if it is determined that just cause is not shown by the student.

If you have missed a test for a legitimate reason, the instructor can require you to write a “make up” test as close in time to the original test as possible or can choose to transfer the percentage weight to another course component. If the instructor schedules a “make up” test for you, its date and location will be at the convenience of the Department of Sociology.

Deferred Final Exam Form: Please note that requests to defer a Registrar scheduled final exam are dealt with through the Registrar's Office. Further information about deadlines, and where paperwork should be taken, is available on the form, which can be found at:

http://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/files/registrar/Sp_Su_DFE_App.pdf

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term also requires a form to be filled out. It's available at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/files/registrar/defTW.pdf>

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the form should be taken to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (SS 110) for approval by an Associate Dean (Students).

Academic Accommodation Policy

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services ; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at: http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf

Grade Reappraisal

Within two weeks of the date the exam/assignment is returned, students seeking reappraisal of examinations or assignments must submit a written response to the instructor explaining the basis for reconsideration of one's mark. The instructor will reconsider the grade assigned and will then book a time with the student to discuss his or her work and rationale. It should be noted that a re-assessed grade may be raised, lowered, or remain the same.

Student Representation

The 2015-16 Students' Union VP Academic is Stephan Guscott: email: suypaca@ucalgary.ca. The Faculty of Arts has four SU representatives who may be contacted at any of the following email addresses: arts1@ucalgary.ca, arts2@ucalgary.ca, arts3@ucalgary.ca, and arts4@ucalgary.ca. You may also wish to contact the Student Ombudsperson for help with a variety of University-related matters: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/provost/students/ombuds/role>

Emergency Evacuations

In the case of fire or other emergency evacuation of this classroom, please proceed to the assembly point at [YOUR location]. Please check these assembly point locations for all of your classes at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints>

Safewalk

The University of Calgary provides a "safe walk" service to any location on Campus, including the LRT, parking lots, bus zones, and campus housing. For Campus Security/Safewalk call 220-5333. Campus Security can also be contacted from any of the "Help" phones located around Campus.
