Course learning outcomes
By the completion of this course, successful students will have:
1. Begun solidifying their individual practice of contemporary dance;
2. Developed an increased ability to somatically react to imagery-based triggers;
3. Identified where to most optimally apply imagery to generate kinaesthetic responses addressing their individual needs;
4. Applied their understanding of the human anatomical structure to their dance practice;
5. Diversified and nuanced their physical interaction to gravity;

Course schedule
Faculty will be making continuous in-studio assessment throughout the course to ascertain that the student is developing the movement patterns and artistry befitting a dancer at the intermediate/ advanced to advanced level.

Assessment components
1. 40% Skill –ongoing*– 20% for Module 1/ 20% for Module 2
   –Technical Proficiency, Clarity, Artistry, and Presentation–
The student will be assessed on their technical development in class on an ongoing basis.
   *Forcier will hold individual meetings on October 15-17 during class time to share Module 1 grades and discuss progress.
   *Mochniej will hold individual meetings on November 26th and 28th to share
Module 2 grade standing and discuss progress.

Note: Effective teaching of dance skills is informed by a variety of theoretical frameworks, strategies, and individual styles. Both instructors look forward to shaking up the model that attaches the student to the instructor rather than emphasizing the exploration of their own body through the concepts and content presented. The 3/1/2 week model is designed to encourage students to integrate the knowledge gained through both instructors’ approach.

2. 40% Learning Approach and Participation –ongoing–
   - 20% for Module 1/ 20% for Module 2
   - Attitude, Commitment, Progress, Ability to Assimilate Information, Attendance–

   A significant part of the grade will be based on participation. By participating, we mean not only showing up for class, but attending to the material at hand. Effort shows and we will be sure to take note of those fully engaged in the class. If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, do not expect to obtain this privilege more than once.

3. 10% Performance Attendance – submission deadline: before the end of term–

   All students must attend: 2 contemporary dance performances, as well as 1 drama performance, 1 music performance and 1 art event. If you are unsure of the type or validity of a performance/event, please consult the instructor prior to purchasing your ticket. Student must submit the ticket stubs for each performance/event in one envelope (labeled with class number and name) with their names clearly written on the back of each ticket. This envelope must be submitted the last week of class.

4. 10% Final Movement Assignment – To be discussed in class at the beginning of Module 2. To be presented the last week of classes, December 3rd and 5th.

Academic integrity, plagiarism
The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html; ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Internet and electronic communication device
The in-class use of computers may be approved by your Instructor. Cell phones and other electronic communication devices should be silenced or turned off upon entering the classroom. If you violate the Instructor's policy regarding the use of electronic communication devices in the classroom, you may be asked to leave the classroom; repeated abuse may result in a charge of misconduct. No audio or video recording of any kind is allowed in class without explicit permission of the Instructor. All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.
