Course description	Further studies in the investigation of acting and live theatrical performance: introductions into the ensemble building and performance exercises of Tadashi Suzuki, exploration into the application of naturalism in performance with an emphasis on partnered-scene-work and monologues.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Invest in physical and vocal articulation warm ups necessary to accomplish the performance needs of naturalistic theatre. 2. Demonstrate a basic understanding of the relevance of abstract exploration to the practical task of acting – in this case connected to the modalities of Japanese director Tadashi Suzuki. 3. Have a clear process to break down and analyze a given script or text to assist actors in the development of a character, it's needs, objectives and intentions. 4. Develop the level of focus and concentration required in formal rehearsal processes. 5. Practice rehearsal etiquette. 6. Develop an observant eye with regard to strengths and weaknesses in performing actors. 7. Develop the work ethic needed to succeed as an actor in live performance. 8. Understand the relationships between games and the playing of games with that performance and acting.
Course schedule	Unit 1: Introduction to the modalities of Tadashi Suzuki: this unit will address effective posture and presence on stage while also identifying the individual's place within an ensemble, and creating an individual out of the ensemble. Students will also engage in an investigation of games and how these activities relate directly to the investment of acting – on going through out entire course. This component of the class will also address elements of physical and vocal warm-ups as well as the relevance of game and performance.

	Unit 2: Introduction to naturalism in theatre and acting styles connected to this era of performance – working from the text Woyzeck students will be assigned partner scenes – see below for assessment and assignments. Unit 3: Monologue and character analysis – students select a monologue from a text connected to the naturalist movement, prep with a full character analysis and present in class – see below for assessment and assignments. Unit 4: Continued investigation in naturalism working from the text Miss Julie – note: a second text may be added to accommodate partnering – students will be assigned partners, partners then choose an appropriate scene from the play – see below for assessment and assignments.
Assessment components	(Instructors should list the different types of assignments that will be used in the class, indicating the percentage value of each type. Where possible, provide due dates for assignments.) Assignment 1: Suzuki Training  Value: 15%  Due Date: On going  Description: An introduction to the physical and vocal exercises of Tadashi Suzuki. Students will move through the various routines developing strength, flexibility, balance and a physical relationship with their Ki energy, and its shared relationship with the observing audience. The nature of focus and concentration will also be explored drawing a formal nature to work in rehearsal and performance. Assignment 2: Woyzeck Scenes  Value: 15%  Due Date: TBD  Description: Further investigation of realism in acting – connected to the plays of the naturalist era. Students are assigned partners and scenes to be presented in class. Assignment 3: Individual Monologues / Drafted Character Analysis  Value: 20% - divided between the two components.  Due Date: TBD  Description: Students select and work 2-minute monologues of their choosing to present in class. Each student also provides a two - 3 page (500 - 750 word) written character analysis of their character’s arc through the entire play – handed in as hard copy work. Assignment 4: Miss Julie Scenes  Value: 15%  Due Date: TBD  Description: Students are assigned partners; each group then selects a scene from the play Miss Julie to be presented in class. Cross casting may be applied as well as alternate texts to accommodate an uneven gender split in the class. Assignment 5: Class journals  Value: 10%  Due Date: On going  Description: As important as prep work like the character and script analysis it is vital that actors and artists catalogue their process through post reflection, also this journal becomes a future reference as students move down the path of artistic and educational work.

	Participation – Growth - Preparation  Value: 25%  Due Date: On going  Description: An evaluation of an individual student’s focus, concentration and effort in class – demonstrating concern and accountability toward the objectives and exercises presented to the group. This grade stems from an individual ‘s demonstrated ability and is gauged on the arc of improvement throughout the entire class, but also the singular investment in the progress of the ensemble. Preparation is connected to work outside of class in regard to learning lines and working scenes – this is your homework. Participation includes but is not limited to the power of observation when others are working and the ability and willingness to offer feedback and critical response. In addition to these assessed components the student’s attendance in class will also fall under this criterion – see below for further definition of this. Please note – cell phones, iPad and computers are not permitted in class in any form, or manner, even during breaks. If a cell phone is needed during a break the student must leave the class. Any cell phones seen in class will be confiscated and returned at the end of class – this event will negatively impact the Growth – Participation – Preparation grade. Please come with a writing instrument and a journal in which to take notes. Appropriate Clothing  Much of the work in this class is physical in nature therefor proper neutral movement cloths are required, no dresses or skirts. Please wear clothes that allow for flexibility in movement, being on the floor, dress in layers as the work will make you heat up and cool off intermittently. Make sure to have a pair of socks at every class, as well as indoor shoes.
Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments  Written assignments must be delivered in hard copy to the teacher at the beginning of class on the due date – or in the department office by the end of the day. Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass  Expectations for attendance:  The growth of students both individual and collective is directly connected to attendance – attendance is mandatory. Without prior notice to the instructor, lateness or absence will negatively impact the participation and growth grade. Prior notice should be in the form of a message to the office of the instructor or through email – it cannot come after the missed class. Three missed classes will impact your grade by one letter point i.e.: B to B-. The class starts on time and is indicated when the door is closed, any student arriving after this point will be counted “late”. Three lates count to one absence.  Acceptance of all excuses is at the discretion of the instructor; prior notice does not always guarantee lenient impact – doctor’s notes will be required for any illness that extends into two classes. Expectations for Writing:

	Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html; ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.</li> <li>2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc.</li> <li>3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.</li> <li>4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, students should find the UTS staff member with an iPad and show their UCID card to print their CYS ticket. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can also go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.</li> <li>5. they can find a UTS staff member with an iPad and get their CYS ticket from them.</li> <li>6. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.</li> <li>7. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.</li> </ol>
