Course description	Studies in the literature, history, theory and criticism of drama, theatre and performance from the mid-twentieth century to the present.
Course learning outcomes	This course will trace the development of modern drama from the mid-twentieth century through to the present day, identifying some of the key concerns and strategies of a range of different playwrights. By the end of the course, students will have an overview of the historical development of modern drama; will be familiar with key texts and issues in, and theoretical and critical approaches to, the field of modern drama; and will have developed their skills in theatre research and critical analysis and in research presentations and essay-writing.

Course schedule	TBA at the first class meeting.
Assignments	1) Weekly written responses to the assigned readings (20%) 2) Two research presentations (20% each) 2) One essay (30%) 3) Class participation (10%) Details on assignments will be provided in class.
Assessment expectations	Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass All assignments are mandatory and must be completed in order to receive a passing grade in the course. Expectations for Attendance and Participation Students must read the assigned materials by the day they are assigned and come to class prepared to engage in thoughtful, informed, constructive discussion of the readings. Attendance and punctuality are required. Guidelines for Submitting Assignments Research presentation outlines and essays are due in hard copy in class at the start of class on the specified deadline. Weekly written responses to the readings will be due by email by 12:00 noon the day before (i.e., Monday) our weekly class meeting on Tuesday. Further details will be provided in class. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. (Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.) Guidelines for Formatting Assignments All written assignments, including presentation outlines and bibliographies, paper proposals, and essays, must be correctly and consistently formatted in an established style such as MLA or Chicago. Late Assignments No extensions will be granted on research presentations. If you do not present on your scheduled day, you must arrange to do a different presentation on another date or receive a grade of F for the assignment. Written work submitted after the deadline may be penalized with the loss of a third of a grade (eg., A- to B+) for each day late.

Grading scale	For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section G.1 Distribution of Grades of the Graduate Calendar for 2017-2018: <table border="1" data-bbox="516 222 1398 835"> <thead> <tr> <th>Grade</th> <th>GPA</th> <th>Graduate Description</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>A+</td> <td>4.00</td> <td>Outstanding</td> </tr> <tr> <td>A</td> <td>4.00</td> <td>Excellent - superior performance showing comprehensive understanding of the subject matter.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>A-</td> <td>3.70</td> <td>Very good performance</td> </tr> <tr> <td>B+</td> <td>3.30</td> <td>Good performance</td> </tr> <tr> <td>B</td> <td>3.00</td> <td>Satisfactory performance</td> </tr> <tr> <td>B-</td> <td>2.70</td> <td>Minimum pass for students in the Faculty of Graduate Studies</td> </tr> <tr> <td>C+</td> <td>2.30</td> <td>All grades below "B-" are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted toward Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements. Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Deferrals of exams/term work	Instructors are normally free, subject to any established departmental or faculty procedures, to administer their own policies regarding deadlines for the completion of term papers or assignments. However, should an extension of time be sought for completion of any such term work beyond five days after the end of lectures, a Deferral of Term Work form must be completed. Deferrals may only be granted at the discretion of the dean and will normally not exceed thirty days. Application forms are available at ucalgary.ca/registrar or at Enrolment Services.
SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Studying at another University	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at UCalgary, you must gain approval from your program and the Faculty of Graduate Studies before the course(s) begin. If the university you wish to attend is not a part of the Western Deans' Agreement or the Canadian Mobility Agreement, you will require a Letter of Permission from your University of Calgary graduate program and the program at the other institution. If you want to go on an exchange, you will need to fill out an Application for Exchange form.
