Course Description:

The course is devoted to the development of musical skills related to the comprehension and performance of post-tonal music. Through sight-singing, aural dictation and keyboard skills, students will work with contemporary approaches to pitch (modality & pan-tonality, symmetrical scales, atonality), rhythm (complex subdivisions, polyrhythm, multimetre & polymetre, changing units of pulse, metric modulation), and harmony (non-functional triadic structures and progressions, non-triadic structures and progressions).

Learning Outcomes:

By the completion of the course, successful students will be able to: sight-sing complex post-tonal melodic materials using both fixed- and movable-Do; perform complex rhythmic exercises using a rhythmic solfège and simultaneous clapping; perform simple keyboard progressions using post-tonal materials; and, correctly notate all of these same materials when performed by the instructor(s).

Assessment:

In-Class Assessment	40%
Engagement (preparation/participation)	10%
Homework assessment (quizzes/performances)	30%
Formal sight-singing, rhythm, keyboard tests SSRK (4@10 %)	40%
Formal dictation tests (4@ 5%)	20%

This is a skills-based course. Students will succeed when they commit to daily practice and to active engagement with the materials in class. Students will be assessed according to the following criteria: accuracy of intonation, accuracy of articulation (control of tempo and subdivisions), clarity and accuracy of notation.

Since class participation is a necessary component of the course, attendance will be taken and will factor, along with punctuality, into final grades. Absences are only acceptable in cases of circumstances beyond the student's control and must be supported by documentary evidence. In cases of absences due to circumstances known to the student in advance, advance notice of the absence must be given to the instructor. Students who miss class are responsible for getting any assigned homework and preparing it for the following class.

Students must be in attendance for all testing. Deferral of testing will be approved only for the following reasons: illness, religious conviction, or domestic affliction, and must be supported by documentation.

Grading:

Demonstrate excellence (superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of the subject matter)

A+ 97-100 A 93-96 A- 90-92

Achieve a good result (clearly above average, showing generally complete knowledge of the subject matter)

B+ 85-89 B 80-84 B- 75-79

Achieve a satisfactory result (basic understanding of the subject matter)

C+ 70-74 C 65-69 C- 60-64

Demonstrate minimal understanding of the material (marginal performance, insufficient preparation for courses in the same subject)

D 50-59

Fail

F 0-49

Note: Assignments that are not submitted as above receive a zero.

NOTE: The final grade for MUSI 325 will be the average of the grades attained in the A and B portions of the course:

MUSI 325 A 50%

MUSI 325 B 50%

Important Term Dates	Winter 2019 Thursday, January 10th to Friday April 12th 2019 Reading Week: February 17-23 Last day to drop a course: Thursday January 17th Last day to add a course: Friday, January 18th Tuition and fee payment deadline: Friday, January 25th
Midterm and final examination scheduling	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (Apr. 15-27 for Winter 2019); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
Deferrals of exams/term work	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html; ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
Internet and electronic communication device	elearn.ucalgary.ca/category/d2/ ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/emergency-instructions/uc-emergency-app The in-class use of computers may be approved by your Instructor. Cell phones and other electronic communication devices should be silenced or turned off upon entering the classroom. If you violate the Instructor’s policy regarding the use of electronic communication devices in the classroom, you may be asked to leave the classroom; repeated abuse may result in a charge of misconduct. No audio or video recording of any kind is allowed in class without explicit permission of the Instructor. SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, students should find the UTS staff member with an iPad and show their UCID card to print their CYS ticket. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can also go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. they can find a UTS staff member with an iPad and get their CYS ticket from them. 6. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 7. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
