

I. Faculty of Arts Research Awards

Research excellence can be demonstrated in many ways. As such, the Faculty of Arts research awards consider a faculty member's contributions through research creation, journal publications, grantsmanship, conference presentations and invited symposia, exhibitions, graduate student supervision and other forms of output.

Awards will be given in the following categories:

- a) New scholars: faculty members within five years of completing terminal degree (One award per year).
- b) Established scholar: more than five years from completion of terminal degree (Up to three awards per year).

Faculty members make nominations for research awards annually. The nomination package should include:

- Nomination letter
- A copy of the nominee's CV (abbreviated)
- Details of the nominee's research output over the last two years that supports the nomination.

Application packages should not exceed ten (10) pages.

Nomination Deadline: March 16, 2015
