All applicants will be considered for either the ASHA Travel grant or the Rowland Smith Travel Award. Normally, the amount awarded will be based on the length of travel and will not vary across the two available sources. Students experiencing financial need may also be considered for the Wigham travel award. Please see below for the terms of reference for each award and any additional requirements.

ASHA Travel Grant:

- Multiple awards offered annually to continuing students in the Arts and Science Honours Academy
- Must be in good academic standing
- Amount may vary dependant on the applicant pool and is typically $500 for one term and $1000 for two terms.

Rowland Smith Travel Award:

- Multiple awards offered annually to continuing ASHA student in the Faculty of Arts
- Requires a 3.2 GPA across 24 units completed in the previous Fall and Winter terms
- Amount may vary dependant on the applicant pool and is typically $500 for one term and $1000 for two terms.

Wigham Travel Award:

- Financial need is an important criterion for receiving this award
- Multiple awards offered annually to continuing students in the Arts and Science Honours Academy
- Requires a 3.2 GPA across 24 units completed in the previous Fall and Winter terms
- Amount may vary dependant on the applicant pool

Funds will be dispersed upon receipt of a copy of your flight itinerary and confirmation of your acceptance to a study/volunteer/work program.

REMINDER: If you are not already admitted to an Honours program, you must apply according to the deadlines of your degree program.
