

Thelma Margaret Horte Memorial Fellowship in Woman and Society 2023-2024

Assessment Rubric

Criterion	Description	Scoring
Significance and impact of the project (50%)	The project clearly outlines the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Objectives and impact within the relevant community/sector/organization,</li> <li>• Rationale for approach and methodology,</li> <li>• EDIA considerations,</li> <li>• Mentorship opportunities for students and student engagement</li> <li>• Impact of the proposed project and how it will be measured.</li> </ul>	1 - unsatisfactory            2 – moderate            3 – strong            4 – very strong            5 - excellent
Capability (25%)	Based on past achievements the applicant has the qualifications to successfully carry out the proposed project. The applicant has an ability to create original research/research creation/scholarship of high quality and impact.	1 - unsatisfactory            2 – moderate            3 – strong            4 – very strong            5 – excellent
Feasibility (25%)	Appropriateness of budget, proposed timeline for outreach activities, and scope of the project vis-à-vis project’s objectives. Evidence of interest from potential partners, where applicable.	1 - unsatisfactory            2 – moderate            3 – strong            4 – very strong            5 – excellent