

EDNA F. EINSIEDEL STUDY ABROAD AWARD
APPLICATION FORM
DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: JANUARY 29, 2024

Name: _____ UCID: _____

Students in any of the Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Media Studies, Bachelor of Arts in Film Studies, Bachelor of Communication and Media Studies, or Bachelor of Film Studies programs who have been accepted into a short term group study or a semester abroad program are eligible to apply for the Edna F. Einsiedel Study Abroad Award. The candidate must be, at minimum, in a second year standing in their respective program, entering or continuing full-time in the specified field of study for the upcoming term, have a minimum GPA of 3.00 in previous Fall and Winter terms, and have completed a minimum of 24 units in the previous academic year. Study abroad terms can be arranged independently, or through the Centre for International Students and Study Abroad (CISSA). The travel study experience can be a University of Calgary short-term group study abroad program or a semester abroad program. Broadly speaking, students must be enrolled and studying with a significant time commitment; the experience is not intended as tourism.

TRAVEL PLANS

Location: _____ Departure and Return Date: _____

For semester abroad programs, name of institution at which you are studying: _____

For group study programs, name of program: _____

Please attach a separate page detailing how the scholarship will enable your study abroad plan and reflect on how it will expand your perspective on the socio-cultural issues that inform your program of study (maximum 250 words).

Please submit your completed application by email to cmf@ucalgary.ca by January 29th 2024.

Scholarships will be awarded based on the calibre of the proposed travel-study plan.