Who Was E. Catherine Barclay?

E. Catherine Barclay (1902-1985) was a blazer of many trails during her lifetime, and far more than a respected and beloved teacher of English and French.

During her career as a high school teacher in Calgary, including 18 years (1937-1955) at Western Canada High, she spearheaded a minor revolution by encouraging – sometimes insisting – that her students speak French in the classroom. A great believer in student exchanges, she was instrumental in establishing a Summer School Scholarship to Quebec and France. In addition, she played a key role in creating the French section of the Banff School of Fine Arts and opening the Calgary branch of Alliance Française. In keeping with her desire to foster international goodwill and understanding, she engaged in the activities of the Calgary branch of the United Nations for many years.

In 1933, in a rented tent measuring 12’ x 14’, she and her sister Mary set up the first youth hostel in North America at Bragg Creek, Alberta. In recognition of their pioneering work in hostelling, Catherine and Mary were honored in 1973 by the Calgary Jaycees as Citizens of the Year. Later that same year the Government of Alberta also recognized the outstanding achievements of the two sisters at a special awards ceremony. In 1975 the Barclay sisters were honored with the Richard Schirrmann Medal presented by the International Hostelling Association of Germany.

The E. Catherine Barclay Award was established by a dedicated group of her friends, colleagues and former students to honour the memory of this exceptional educator and world citizen. To preserve the ideals and goals of Catherine Barclay, the award provides the opportunity for recipients to pursue their chosen areas of studies in France, to perfect their knowledge of French, to gain experience and an appreciation for living in another culture, and hopefully to acquire something of Catherine’s world view of the family of nations.
