Important Deadlines

Signed Lease & Payment Deposit

Please review your lease and return a signed copy along with the payment deposit to University Theatre Services by the date indicated on Schedule 2 in the lease. Our receipt of the signed lease with your payment deposit will officially confirm your booking with us. Ticket printing and online sales cannot occur until we have received these requirements. If you are paying by cheque, please make it out to the University of Calgary. If you would like to pay the deposit via credit card, or if you have any questions, please call 403.220.4918 or email our Venue Business Administrator at billing@theatreservices.ca

8 weeks before your event

Please complete and return the booking forms for Technical, Front of House and Ticketing Information at least eight weeks prior to your event. Forms can be located online at: arts.ucalgary.ca/creative-performing-arts/theatre-services/how-book-and-faqs

Completed booking forms can be emailed to booking@theatreservices.ca. We use the information in these forms to plan for appropriate staff levels, technical requirements, set-up and sale of tickets, and any other matters that may require lead time to prepare.

2 weeks before your event

This is the deadline for proof of insurance. Failure to submit proof of insurance by this deadline may result in the cancellation of your event. Please return relevant paperwork to booking@theatreservices.ca

2 weeks after your event

University Theatre Services will send you the running charges sheet. Please take this opportunity to review the expenses from your event. We now email invoices in order to save time and respect the environment.

Payments

Payment of the deposit and the final invoice can be made by cash, or by credit card, over the phone, or online. If you choose to pay the deposit by credit card, a link will be emailed to you with your lease along with instructions. Contact the Booking Administrator if you have any questions at booking@theatreservices.ca. All payments are secure and you will not be required to create an account.

Any amount that is owed to University Theatre Services must be paid within 30 days of receipt of the invoice.

If a credit balance remains, we will process a payment at this time to the business listed on your lease back onto your credit card or by direct deposit into your account.

The Venue Business Administrator will endeavour to complete this process within 4-8 weeks of your event end date, and can be contacted at 403.220.4918 or billing@theatreservices.ca

General Information

Copyright permission

Royalty payment and copyright clearance is the sole responsibility of the renter. The renter must accept all responsibility for and absolve the University of Calgary from any liability or expense arising out of the use of any composition, work or material covered by copyright.

Copyright permission must be received from the appropriate collective for the public performance of both live and recorded music.

SOCAN (socan.ca) licenses material your group will be performing or will be playing via CD, iPod, etc. This collective manages royalty payments to the lyricist(s) and songwriter(s).

RE:SOUND (resound.ca) - licenses recorded music for public performance. This collective manages royalty payments for the recording artist(s) and record companies.

Public viewing of film and video must have the authorized consent of the copyright holder(s). All publicly viewed film and video must be rated, unless exempted, by the Alberta Film Classification (albertafilmratings.ca).

Smoking

The University of Calgary is a smoke- and cannabis-free environment. This includes all forms of e cigarettes.

Lost and found

Any items found following an event will be taken to central university lost and found. Please contact 403-220-2997.

Event estimation

We can offer you guidance on pricing, but because the actual costs of your event may vary depending on your needs during occupancy, we cannot offer guaranteed estimates or a quote.

For meetings and conferences, you may need to budget for AV equipment. If your booking occurs outside business hours, it will also require a conference attendant.

Performance events require technicians and front of house staff, whose labour costs depend on the nature of your booking, and how long they are required to be onsite.

Please note, without a signed lease, venue availability is subject to change without notice.

Parking

Parking on campus is operated by Parking Services (ucalgary.ca/parking or 403.220.6771). University Theatre Services does not control any loading dock or parking area adjacent to our theatres.

We suggest that patrons use the Arts Parkade. The parkade is accessible from 24 Ave. NW and Campus Gate NW. Directional signage to all of our venues is located on the +15 walkway.

Campus maps

Maps of the University of Calgary, including an interactive room finder, can be found at ucalgary.ca/map.

Mandatory safety orientation meeting

A mandatory safety meeting with your technician will be required within 15 minutes of your arrival.

Your cast must also have a safety orientation within 15 minutes of their arrival.

UCalgary safety policies

For further information on University of Calgary safety policies and procedures please visit ucalgary.ca/safety.

Emergency phone numbers

Police, Fire, Ambulance: 911
Campus Security: 403.220.5333
Front of House Manager: 403.220.4906
Manager, Venue & Client Relations: 403.220.4920

If you do call 911, please call Campus Security afterwards to inform them of the incident.

Front of House

Front of house staff

We provide a house manager, ushers, concession attendants, and a box office cashier. Hourly and overtime rates apply. Current rates are indicated on schedule 2 of your lease and in the 'Rates' section of this document.

Ushers collect tickets, distribute programs, assist patrons in finding seats, and set up tables for merchandise and reception. If requested, they will also operate a coat-check service.

A 15-minute break is required for all staff within no longer than three-and-a-half hours of continuous labour. An unpaid meal break is required for all staff after five hours of labour.

Please confirm all front of house requirements are listed in the front of house information form, which is due eight weeks prior to your event.

Concession services

All concession food and beverage sales must be conducted by University Theatre Services. Concession service consists of coffee, pop, juice, bottled water, beer, wine and light snacks. For additional information, please contact our Front of House Manager.

If concession service is requested, a minimum of $150 of concession sales will be required. If sales are less than $150, you will be billed the difference.

Alcohol must be purchased at our concession and consumed within the lobby, or theatre seating if deemed allowable by University Theatre Services. The public consumption of alcohol in any other area is strictly prohibited.

Intermission

Any performance exceeding 90 minutes in length is required to provide at least one fifteen-minute intermission. Failure to provide such an intermission will result in a fee of two hundred and fifty ($250.00) dollars, charged on the final invoice.

Programs

We encourage digital programs. Any printed programs required to be distributed to your patrons must be given to your House Manager no later than one hour before showtime. Please ensure any inserts have already been stuffed into the program.

Merchandise sales

Clients are responsible for all aspects of merchandise sale activity within our venues. If University Theatre Services FOH personnel are requested to assist in merchandise sales then they will be charged out at the cashier rate listed on schedule 2 and in the 'Rates' section of this document; dependant on availability. ALL MERCHANDISE SALES ARE SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY UNIVERSITY THEATRE SERVICES AND ARE SUBJECT TO A 15% SURCHARGE.

Post/Pre-show receptions

We would be pleased to discuss all of your pre/post show reception options. Additional rental and labour rates may apply and only University of Calgary approved caterers may be used. Please contact our Front of House Manager to discuss your options.

Publicity

Please note that in our lobbies the display cases for printed posters are no longer available. We do offer limited space on our digital boards, please contact the Booking Administrator for details.

One printed poster can be displayed on the community board, space permitting, outside of the SCPA offices prior to your event. You can deliver your poster to our main office.

Wheelchair seating

All of our venues are wheelchair accessible and have patron drop-off locations outside. For advance notice and inquiries, please call our Front of House Manager.

Ticket policies

All tickets must be printed and sold through University Theatre Services.

Online ticket sales will go off sale three hours prior to the start of your performance.

Pre-ordered printed tickets will be held at the venue's "Will Call" for pick up. All Will Call tickets must be picked up by the credit card holder.

Unsold tickets may also be made available for sale one hour before the performance.

If door sales are requested by the Client, our on-site box office will open one hour before the performance and close 30 minutes after the start of the performance. Box office personnel will be billed to the Client for three hours at the cashier rate listed on schedule 2 and in the 'Rates' section of this document.

Ticket sales are final. No exchanges or refunds are allowed for purchased tickets.

Sustainability

UTS encourages digital tickets and programs when possible.

Online and box office payment methods

Online ticket sales accept Visa and Mastercard only. Debit cards, including Visa debit cards, are not accepted.

Box office sales accept Visa, Mastercard, Amex, Debit and Cash. Personal cheques are not accepted at the box office

Babes in Arms

University Theatre Services requires that all patrons, regardless of age, who access a performance must hold a ticket to do so. The University of Calgary has strict occupancy rules which University Theatre Services must abide to. If you have questions about this policy please contact the Front of House Manager.

Technical Information

Production needs

Please confirm your equipment needs, proposed schedule(s), and technical requirements for sound, lights and stage as listed in the technical information form, which is due eight weeks prior to your event.

Length of performance

Performances cannot be longer than three-and-a-half hours, including intermission.

Second performances on the same day must have at least two hours between the end of the first performance and the start of the second performance.

Technician call times

Please allow at least 30 minutes between your arrival and rehearsal time if you don't require set-up. Technicians are required to be in the facility at least one hour prior to your performance.

A 15-minute break is required for all staff after no more than three-and-a-half hours of continuous labour. An unpaid meal break of one hour is required for all staff after five hours of labour.

University Theatre Services will be in contact with you at least four weeks prior to your event to confirm a daily schedule for your event.

Special effects

Please consult with us about any special effects including fog, haze, strobe lights and open flame. All costs associated with required control measures must be assumed by the client. Many of these effects are subject to government legislation and established university policies and procedures.

Use of fog and haze effects are restricted within certain areas of our facilities. Clients are liable for any City of Calgary charges due to accidental fire alarms caused by fog/haze effects. The use of pyrotechnical effects is prohibited in our facilities.

Firearms

The use of firearms and replicas must comply with all federal and provincial legislation, as well as University of Calgary policies and procedures. Please consult with University Theatre Services about your needs.

Set

Please notify us if you have a set. Sets must be constructed in a manner that will not be a safety hazard, using materials that are fire resistant. Cardboard sets are not allowed on stage due to fire regulations.

Major construction should be completed before move in. The University cannot provide any tools or hardware for your scenery. If you plan on completing any construction or painting on site, please discuss your needs with us before move in.

Please note that articles known to cause allergic responses are restricted from our venue. This includes, but is not limited to, hay and straw.

Sets and props must be moved out of the facility at the end of your last performance day. Sets cannot be disposed of in University of Calgary dumpsters.

Lighting requirements

Each facility has a house plot that normally meets the needs of our clients. If you require additional fixtures to be added to our plot, more time must be allocated for your set-up and strike. Information on our house plot and inventory can be found on our website.

On average, each lighting fixture takes 10 minutes to hang and five minutes to remove. Please plan for each lighting cue to take five minutes to develop from start to finish.

Additional consumable lighting materials such as gel, gobos, third party rentals, or any other direct material costs may be subject to an additional fee.

Sound requirements

Each facility is equipped with an audio system that meets the needs of most clients. Information on our audio system can be found on our website.

If you plan to reinforce your performance with the addition of microphones, such as a live band or music, the audio console may need to be placed in the house. This would require our audio technician to be in the house to properly mix your performance. Please consult with UTS before you complete your ticket request form in order to ensure that the appropriate seating has been held for this.

Additional audio consumables and speciality equipment such as wireless mics, stage monitors, third party rentals may be subject to an additional fee.

Video and Streaming requirements

We have streaming capabilities in our theatre venues. Please contact the Booking Administrator for further information.

Booking FAQs

How late can I cancel my event?

Once your event is confirmed via signed lease and payment deposit received, you may cancel within a week prior to your event start date with a limited penalty. The building deposit is non-refundable, but with one weeks advance warning the labour deposit may be refunded to you. If your event is cancelled and you do not occupy the venue then the damage deposit will be refunded.

Can I use my own ticketing system?

All tickets must be provided and sold by University Theatre Services. If you have special requirements, please contact our Booking Administrator at 403.220.4901 or by email at booking@theatreservices.ca to discuss your needs.

When can tickets go on sale?

We require a signed lease and a deposit to be made to the University of Calgary before ticket sales can occur. Please note we must receive your ticket order form at least two weeks before your tickets are expected to go on sale.

Can my event be catered?

The University of Calgary has an on-site caterer that can provide catered service for your event. Please contact our Front of House Manager at 403.220.4906 or by email at foh@theatreservices.ca for further information.

Can I get a quote for my event?

University Theatre Services does not provide quotes. We can offer you guidance on pricing, but the actual costs of your event will vary depending on your needs during occupancy. Please contact our Booking Administrator at booking@theatreservices.ca for further information.

How will Covid-19 restrictions impact my event?

The University of Calgary continues to work closely with Alberta Health Services throughout the Covid-19 pandemic to ensure that we are able to support a safe relaunch and that all public health measures are adhered to. Please contact the Booking Administrator at booking@theatreservices.ca for the most current event guidelines and restrictions.
