

Collegium Musicum is a small, primarily vocal ensemble that performs early (old) music, with a focus on the Renaissance and Baroque. There are opportunities for solo and small group singing. Interested string, wind, guitar, and keyboard players should contact julie.harris1@ucalgary.ca.

Please sign up to audition here.

Be prepared for a range check, to sing one piece (any) and sight read a short excerpt. If you have any questions about selecting a piece, please don't hesitate to ask. All levels of experience are welcome. The ability to learn music on your own is required.

Comments from past members:

- "a HIGHLY rewarding course"
- "highlight of my semester"
- Learned about "musicality and affect, phrasing, and ornamentation"