Collegium Musicum Auditions
MUPF 221/321

DIRECTOR:

Julie Harris

During the first week of classes, students registered in Collegium should email the director to arrange a short Zoom meeting. This will be to discuss any previous experience with early music and in some cases to have a short audition, which will determine singers' voice type and generally help with assigning repertoire.

Note: This meeting is optional for voice majors 2nd year and higher.
