Volunteer & Job Opportunities

Mental Health Counsellor, DeerU Education and Technology

Job details

Salary: $50–$200 an hour

Job type: Full-time, Part-time, Internship / Co-op

Remote

Qualifications: Bachelor's Degree (Preferred)

Benefits: Work from home

Full Job Description

DeerU Education and Technology is looking to address the need for mental health services for youth, families, and victims of abuse. We are looking to hire and oversee clinical staff, develop a world renowned mental health platform and collaborate with clinical professionals across the country.

Currently looking to hire candidates with backgrounds in Psychology, Criminal Psychology, Mental Health, Social Work, Counselling or who possess valid clinical experience. These individuals would teach and counsel youth and families, internationally, using our online platform. Candidates will have the ability to make a positive impact on our influential mental health program, and have access to our professional recording studio & technical team in Toronto. For those outside the province of Ontario, we are accepting applications for remote opportunities. All candidates will also have flexibility in terms of course content and scheduling one-on-one counselling sessions with clients.

We understand many professionals in the field will have other work responsibilities so we are mindful of that, and willing to work around that schedule. Part time, flexible hours which could lead to full time if interested. This is a great opportunity for University or College Instructors, Mental Health Counsellors, and senior students in this field of study, who wish to obtain relevant work experience.

Applications are being accepted until March 6, 2023. Interested applicants are requested to send their CV to the attention of the Program Director, Nicole Porter.

Job Types: Full-time, Part-time, Internship / Co-op

Salary: $50.00-$200.00 per hour

Application deadline: 2023-03-06

Expected start date: 2023-03-07
